FOR ROLE IN METH CONSPIRACY

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that JOSE SIGFRIDO MAGANA-REYNAGA , 40, Colima, Mexico, was sentenced to 135 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge David F. Hamilton following his guilty plea to Conspiracy to Distribute 50 Grams or More of Methamphetamine. This case was the result of a six-month investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration, Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and the Indiana State Police.

MAGANA-REYNAGA, a Mexican national who was illegally residing in West Lafayette, Indiana, supplied numerous individuals throughout Indiana with large amounts of pure methamphetamine. Law enforcement agents seized nearly 1 ½ kilograms of pure methamphetamine in this case.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Barry D. Glickman, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Hamilton also ordered MAGANA-REYNAGA to surrender to Immigration and Customs Enforcement officials for deportation proceedings after serving his sentence.
